Data : The designations employed and the presentation of material throughout this website do not imply the expression of any opinion whatsoever on the part of UNESCO concerning the legal status of any country, territory, city or area of its authorities, or concerning the delimitation of its frontiers or boundaries. This map features only journalists whose killings have been condemned by UNESCO from June 1993 until July 2019. The pins on the map have been placed at city-level, and do not reflect an exact address.

Publisher's identity : United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), IDEI@unesco.org

Purpose of the website : This website was produced for the UNESCO campaign #KeepTruthAlive, on the occasion of the International Day to End Impunity for Crimes against Journalists, celebrated annually on 2 November. The map features the names of the journalists whose killings were recorded by UNESCO since 1993. Internet users will thus be able to access information on each journalist, and to share the map on social media to demand justice.

Elements related to intellectual property : UNESCO does not warrant that the information, documents and materials contained in its website is complete and correct and shall not be liable whatsoever for any damages incurred as a result of its use.
